of President Johnson and his policy for the restoration of the Union were adopted. This evening the convention is being addressed by Senator Doolittle and others.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 1.

The Democratic State Convention to elect delegates to the National Convention at St. Louis, Mo., opened here this evening.

Philadelphia met to-day. The following delegates at large for the States were chosen: S. S. Norton, T. Steele, H. M. Rice and F. J. Gollwirth.

Resolutions in support of President Johnson, and favoring the immediate admission of the Southern States into the Union, were adopted. The Convention then adjourned sine die.

THE REBEL OUTRAGE AT GEORGETOWN, KY. The Cincinnati Gazette gives full particulars of the outrage committed on Rev.

R. G. Gardiner, by rebel soldiers and others at Georgetown, Ky. Mr. Gardiner is a missionary of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to labor among the freedmen. He has been a traveling preacher in Kentucky for thirty years.

and might be reasonably expected to understand the duties of the position and the character of the inhabitants. Mr. Gardiner went to work zealously, yet carefully. He preached no political sermons, and confined himself to the strict line of his ministerial duty.

office. About two weeks ago he arrived at Georgetown, one of the most thoroughly rebel places in the State, and soon found that his presence was unwelcome. The minister of the Southern Methodist church was especially hostile to him. He is now being precipally stirred up on Sunday evening, just after Mr. Gardiner had concluded a sacramental service at the colored church, this worthy walked in, attended by two kindred spirits, and told the congregation that his church had loved them very much, but as they had left that organization for the Northern church, they could have the use of their house of worship no longer. The church South has technically a right to the house, as its colored builders have been slaves, and were obliged to vest the title in white trustees, and "lashed their teeth behind the closed blinds of their residences as the procession, a half a mile long, passed through the streets. All loyal men in Newbern understand that the totally uneducated colored made against Col. Whittlesey, is only one of the steps that are being taken to break down

many of Mr. Weller's remarkable coincidences.

"On Tuesday evening, a returned rebel soldier handed a black boy a written order to deliver to Mr. Gardener, directing him to leave town immediately. Of this he took no notice, as he was lying sick with a bilious attack, for which he had taken a dose of mercury. About ten o'clock, while Mr.

G. was lying in bed at the house of a friend, in the outskirts of the town, a knock was heard at the door. His wife opened it, when he was immediately seized, taken out and guarded by part of a body of men with their faces blackened and other wise disguised. The gang then went indoors and surrounded Mr.

Finally, they took him down a hill and forced him over a stone wall, into a very muddy creek, plunging him under the water until he was very nearly strangled. The lady of the house, who had followed them out, in vain implored them to spare him.— They, however, at last let him go without inflicting any mortal injury. There were about a dozen of the ruffians, several of General Wilson's bill for the equalization of bounties, which has been incorporated with the omnibus appropriation bill, reads thus:

SEC. 1. That to each and every soldier, who enlisted in the army of the United States after the 19th of April, 1861, for a period of not less than three years and having served his term of enlistment, has been honorably discharged, and who has received or is entitled to receive from the United States the sum of $100,000, the sum of $100,000, the people of Marion and Perry Counties, Alabama, have passed resolutions speaking kind words of appreciation to the said soldier for their former slaves, and offering to assist them in educating their children, the freedmen recently held a meeting at Marion, and adopted resolutions expressing much satisfaction.

States under existing laws a bounty of one hundred dollars, and no more. And any such soldier, enlisted for not less than three years, who has been honorably discharged on account of wounds received in the line of duty, or the widow, minor children, or parents, in the order named, of any such soldier, distinguished himself in the United States military service, shall be entitled to a pension at the course of their former owners, and thankfully accepting the proffered aid.

A lame effort to turn the Penians over to the Johnson party was made to-night

Sec. 2. That to each and every soldier who enlisted into the army of the United States, after the 19th day of April, 1863, while in the service and in the line of duty, shall be paid the additional bounty of one hundred (100) dollars hereby authorized.
